

President Lord Ralph Kerr

Registered charity no.1108835

MELBOURNE CIVIC SOCIETY PROGRAMME 2018/19

Monday April 30th: John Robinson & the Home Brewery by Bob Massey

The history of “Home Ales” founded in 1875 by John Robinson in Daybrook, Nottinghamshire

Monday May 21st: Rudyard Lake: Past & Present by Ray Perry

Tracing the enduring attraction of Rudyard Lake in Staffordshire.

Saturday July 14th: Visit to Clay Mills Pumping Station

Join the non-steam Open Day to see this magnificent Victorian pumping station.

September 15th and 16th: Exhibition at Melbourne Arts Festival

See interesting old photographs from the archive at the Senior Citizens Centre, Church Street.

Monday September 24th: The Wreck of the Winterton & What happened to the Crew

Jean Hood tells of a shipwreck and the adventures of the crew as they attempt to reach home.

Monday October 29th: The Canary Girls of Chilwell by Maureen Rushton

An account of the women who did the dangerous job of filling shells during the First World War.

A SPECIAL EVENT TO COMMEMORATE THE CENTENARY OF THE END OF WW1

Monday November 26th: Sir William Turville by Kate Bridger

The story of a Leicestershire knight – “accomplished troublemaker and hunter”

This will be followed by our WINTER SOCIAL EVENING

Monday January 26th: The Pentrich Uprising by Michael Parkin

An account of the causes and consequences of the armed uprising in Derbyshire.

Monday February 25th: Hippos, Hares & Horseshoes: Derbyshire Mammals,

Past, Present & Future by Debbie Alston

A local wildlife expert shares her knowledge of the mammal population in Derbyshire.

Monday March 25th: A.G.M. followed by the History of Melbourne Wood by Philip Heath

A local historian shares his detailed knowledge of the area.

Enquiries to the Secretary Pam Adams 01332 865760 pamadams56@yahoo.co.uk

Meetings are held in the Assembly Rooms, Melbourne at 7.30 pm.

Guests are always welcome. Members £1, non-members £2

www.melbournecivicsociety.org.uk